Editor: Runway | Categoría: Fashion | Idioma: English | Frecuencia: Quarterly

Descripción de la revista: Runway® is a selective celebration of the inspirational designers, entertainers and artists that bring beauty, grace and elegance into our lives. Fashion and beauty are not simply about image; these elements are a cultural barometer for what is going on in society and in the lives of women. It's a story that you must tell visually through a collection of powerful images and articles. This is why Runway® provides our readers multiple viewpoints of fashion, beauty and celebrities, each bringing an influential slice of grace, power or individualism to the publication.
